

Catacomb of St. Savinilla in Nepi (VT)

Catacomb from the fourth-fifth century attached to the eighteenth century church named after Saints Tolomeus and Romanus who, according to tradition, are buried in the underground cemetery. The monument preserves painted inscriptions and graffiti, and frescoes from late antiquity and the Middle Ages. Of note is the architectonic system of the catacomb characterized by extremely wide, imposing galleries. To learn more, buy La catacomba di S. Savinilla
